In the peaceful countryside of Zirakpur, the natural forest used to be a hunting ground for the Maharaja of Patiala. It was turned into a zoological park in 1977 and named after Mahendra Chaudhary, the Governor of Punjab at that time. Know the forest and its inhabitants, by taking a Lion Safari or Drive-in-Deer Safari, to meet about 82 kinds of animals alongwith some rare birds and reptiles.

Gurdwara Shri Nabha Sahib, Zirakpur

A magnificent piece of architecture, the Gurdwara stands at the place where Guru Teg Bahadur Ji's head was kept safely for sometime by Bhai Jaita Ji.As heard, an old Muslim saint who resided there served them whole-heartedly. Content with his seva, Guru Gobind Singh Ji came down to Zirakpur and visited him at his hut.

Gurdwara Baoli Sahib

Situated in village Dhakoli, the sparkling white Gurdwara has a legend attached to it. The village was facing a huge drought when Guru Gobind Singh Ji visited it. Seeing the sufferings of people, he shot an arrow on the ground and a well (baoli) with a staircase appeared.

This act not only solved the water problem but also attracted followers who visit here to take a dip in its holy waters.

Gurdwara Shri Patshahi Nauvin & Dasvin Sahib

Sanctified by Guru Teg Bahadur Ji, this Gurdwara in Humanyupur village is the place where he once stood and blessed the village to prosper. Sant Shiv Charan Das, a resident of the village invited the Guru to his house and served him with great honour.

Gurdwara Amb Sahib

The holy shrine in Phase 8, Mohali is directly associated with Shri Guru Har Rai Sahib Ji and Guru Arjan Dev Ji.The complex has a miraculous mango tree which by the blessings of Guru Har Rai Sahib Ji bears juicy fruits throughout the year, even in winters! Counted among the most revered pilgrimages in Punjab, Amb Sahib distributes the mangoes of this tree as prasad.

Gurdwara Angitha Sahib

The white marble Gurdwara used to be the penance ground of great souls like Bhagat Kuram Ji Maharaj, Sant Baba Ishar Singh Ji Maharaj, Shri Guru Har Rai Sahib Ji and Sant Baba Atar Singh Ji Maharaj. Their devotion has been reflected in the holy Gurbani.

Gurdwara Shri Singh Shaheedan Sahib

This Gurdwara is in the memory of martyrdom of Jathedar Hanuman Singh and 500 Sikhs who won martyrdom at this place fighting against British forces during Anglo-Sikh Wars. Wooden shoes of martyrs have been preserved here. A Sarovar also exists inside Gurdwara Complex.

Gurdwara Mata Sundar Kaur Ji

The beautiful Gurdwara is dedicated to Mata Sundar Kaur Ji, the spiritual consort of Guru Gobind Singh Ji. This place of worship also functioned as a community kitchen where food for Baba Banda Singh Ji's army was prepared.

Gurdwara Nada Sahib

About 15 km from the city of Chandigarh, the imposing Gurdwara in Panchkula is associated with Guru Gobind Singh Ji. It provided a relaxing stopover for him and his fellow warriors after a battle with the Mughals. They were served earnestly by a local villager named Nadu Shah and as per the blessings of Guru Gobind Singh Ji the Gurdwara was named Nada Sahib. The huge structure has a 3 storey parking and spacious langar hall; it attracts crowds on the full moon nights every month.

Rock Garden

(Timing:-Summers (9.00 AM-7.00 PM), Winter (9.00 AM to 6.00 PM)
Contact Number : 1800-180-2116

Nek Chand's Rock Garden is situated about 11 km from Mohali, one can marvel at the figures of Hinduand Buddhist gods, and animals, built with waste pieces of ceramics.

Capitol Complex

Chandigarh Capitol Complex, is a government complex designed by the architect Le Corbusier and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is spread over an area of around 100 acres. The Capital Complex consists of three main edifices, namely, the Secretariat, the Legislative Assembly and the High Court. In the centre stands the giant metallic sculpture of the Open Hand, the official emblem of Chandigarh, signifying the hand to give and the hand to take; peace and prosperity, and the unity of mankind.

Visit the Rose Garden

Zakir Hussain Rose Garden, about 10 km from Mohali city has more than 1600 types of roses in vibrant colours and sizes. Located in Sector-16, Chandigarh, the garden comes in full bloom during Feb - March when the Rose Festival takes place. Get awed by their beauty.

Sukhna Lake & Wildlife Sanctuary (Spot on F6)

(Timing:- 6.00am to 8.00pm)

A bird watcher's paradise, the rain - fed artificial lake, about 12 km from Mohali serves as a picnic spot for people from all walks of life. It is flocked by cranes, Siberian ducks, storks and other species of birds. The Mango and food festivals held here attract locals as well as people from other places in Punjab and neighbouring states. Covering an area of about 2600 hectares, the Sukhna Lake catchment area is a breeding ground for fauna like giant squirrels, wild boars, deer, pangolins and different reptiles.

Le Corbusier Centre

It has been set up by the Chandigarh Administration, at the old Sector 19 office of the city's architect, Le Corbusier. The Swiss-French architect used the office while conceptualizing the city almost six decades ago. The Centre displays and exhibits the life and works of Le Corbusier, so that tourists and future generations may be able to acquaint themselves with the rich cultural heritage of the city. The main aim of the Centre would be preservation, interpretation, research, display of the works and legacy of Le Corbusier.
